Xulon Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Robert Perreault's new book, Grow Up: A Call to Maturity, demonstrates through biblical examples, scriptural verses and even personal stories how God begins to craft a person's life once they accept Jesus in their lives. He understands the imposing, but rewarding, journey that God calls His believers in Christ to undergo and feels His calling is to equip believers for that faith-led expedition. Broken down into the progressive steps in faith confirmation, Perreault explores the concepts of recognized terms such as repentance and obedience, utilizing familiar passages and scriptures from the Bible to expound and uphold his teachings. Perreault also injects examples from his own life to strengthen his connection with daily circumstances of his readers, letting them know God never leaves them alone in their trials and triumphs. Grow Up: A Call to Maturity is a resourceful tool to solidify your faith base as you realize God's instructions for your path of obedience while relishing the abundant love bestowed upon you, from Him, at every turn. When the storms of life assail and seem to knock believers to the ground, they will undoubtedly be able to rise up confident, unscathed and ready to face a new day. The future, no matter what happens, is bright when travelling with God. Robert Perreault is a public servant with the Government of Canada. He holds a Diploma in Applied Technology and a MS Office Master Instructor Certification with the Microsoft Corp. Called as a Teacher of God's Word, he finds his ministry at The Peace Place in Edmonton, AB. He also ministers with his spouse Marilyn as NAME Canada Directors (National Association for...
