Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Ohio School Laws: In Force April 15, 1889, Also a Set of Blank Forms, and Direction for Their Use, to Serve as a Guide for School Officers Section 360 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio thus provides: He [the State Commissioner of Common Schools] shall cause as many copies of the laws as are necessary, relating to schools and teachers institutes, with an appendix of appropriate forms and instructions for carrying into execution all such laws, to be printed in a separate volume, and distributed to each county with the laws, journals, and other documents, for the use of the school officers therein, as often as any change in the laws is made of sufficient importance, in the opinion of the commissioner, to require a republication and distribution thereof. There have been in this office for distribution no copies of the edition of the school laws of 1883 - the last edition published - for more than two years. The demand for copies throughout the whole State is now most importunate. There is, therefore, an urgent necessity for a new issue. The notes and the references to the decisions of courts in the edition of 1883, are very valuable and complete. Most of these notes and nearly all the citations of decisions have been retained in this edition. Neither to these notes nor to the citations has it seemed necessary to make large additions. To the comparatively few that have been made an asterisk is prefixed. In preparing this reissue of the school laws, I have been under many obligations to Attorney-General Watson for advice on legal points. Valuable help has also been obtained from...
