See advertisement for full description and price. With The Camera, the monthly circular from the Illinois College of Photography, tells, as usual, of visits of former students and about a dozen that have completed their course, and each easily found satisfactory situations, either as photographers or engravers. It tells also, equally as usual, of the marrying and giving in marriage amongst the students, such generally finding suitable openings for the establishment of studios of their own. The students Y. M. C. A. and the baseball team are also prospering, having just erected shower baths in preparation for the warm weather and succeeded in raising funds by a basket social and dance, and are preparing to raise more by a series of big events in the coming month. Taking all in all, we might stereotype the concluding sentence of these monthly reports to the effect that the college continues greater and greater progress month by month. J Now is the time for beautiful blue skies and white fleecy clouds that add so much to the beauty of the landscape. What can be nicer than a series of prints from such negatives printed pn the new blue print post card--the Eastman Ferro-Prussiate Post Card. The coating is not the ordinary blue print,...
