Treatment of Error in Second Language Student Writing (2nd edition)

By Dana R. Ferris

The University of Michigan Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Treatment of Error in Second Language Student Writing (2nd edition), Dana R. Ferris, "Treatment of Error "offers a realistic, well-reasoned account of what teachers of multilingual writers need to know about error and how to put what they know to use. As in the first edition, Ferris again persuasively addresses the fundamental error treatment questions that plague novice and expert writing specialists alike: What types of errors should teachers respond to? When should we respond to them? What are the most efficacious ways of responding to them? And ultimately, what role should error treatment play in the teaching of the process of writing? The second edition improves upon the first by exploring changes in the field since 2002, such as the growing diversity in what is called L2 writers, the blurring boundaries between native and non-native speakers of English, the influence of genre studies and corpus linguistics on the teaching of writing, and the need the move beyond error to second language development in terms of approaching students and their texts. It also explores what teacher preparation programs need to do to train teachers to treat student error. The...

This book may be worth purchasing. It typically fails to expense excessive. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
