Excerpt from Paul Revere's Signal: The True Story of the Signal Lanterns in Christ Church, Boston Mr. Deane said that some of the members of the Society would remember an interesting communication which appeared some months ago (July 20) in the Boston Daily Advertiser, entitled Paul Revere's Signal: The true story of the signal lanterns in Christ Church, Boston. It was written by the Reverend John Lee Watson, D. D., formerly of Trinity Church in this city, and now residing in Orange, New Jersey; and took the ground that the person who hung out or displayed the lanterns on Christ Church Steeple, on the night of the 18th of April, 1775, was not Robert Newman, the sexton of the church, but John Pulling, a friend of Paul Revere. Dr. Watson's statement seemed to be conclusive, and to be fully concurred in by our historical friends. Mr. Deane said that Dr. Watson had sent to him a slip from the Advertiser containing his article, with some corrections and additions; and he now communicated it to...
